PROJECT NO. 131 ^{No.}

"Thornhill"

This building was erected in the year 1819
by Frederick Bates.

Mr. Bates came to St. Louis in the year 1806 and in the year 1824 was appointed Governor of the State of Missouri. He died while acting in the capacity of Governor and was buried on the grounds.

Since the year 1929 the property has been in the possession of Leicester Flust and has been very well taken care of and preserved as a landmark.

The residence is a two and one-half story frame.

Information received from St. Louis Post Dispatch.

LESLIE L. FLETCHER.
